

KAMLOOPS AIRPORT

MEDIA RELEASE

September 5, 2006 – 10:15 am

Kamloops Airport has received word that Air Canada Jazz has suffered a failure of their computer system at their Halifax center. Until further notice, all Air Canada Jazz flights are temporarily suspended. This problem is affecting Jazz flights only and the Air Canada main fleet is continuing to fly. It is not known what the problem is or how long it will take to repair the problem.

Air Canada Jazz customers are advised to contact the Air Canada reservations center at 1-888-247-2262 for updates on their travel plans.
